COVER STORY

Tangerine and lemon, teal and berry

Q: My husband stole me away to New York, where we stayed at the Muse Hotel. The restaurant had an absolutely delicious coffee (different from the one provided in the rooms). This flavor has been unmatched in anything else that I have found. Please help.

— G.J. Foster, Alpharetta

A: The brew you're seeking is made by Kobricks Coffee Co., a family-owned enterprise that's been roasting its own blends in Hoboken, N.J., since 1920. You can call 1-800-562-7491 and ask for the coffee served at the Muse Hotel. It also goes by the name of Broadway Blend. A pound of either whole beans or ground coffee costs $7-$10. The company also provides an informative Web site at www.kobricks.com, but online ordering is still "under construction."
